

Healthcare Storage

The Bott Group was established over 80 years ago, and although our experience has grown our values and ideals have remained constant throughout;

To develop high quality solutions which deliver for our customers

We've invested heavily in flexible manufacturing capability which enables us to offer a comprehensive range combined with short lead times and value for money pricing.

Before any Bott product goes on sale it undergoes a rigorous in house testing regime, our drug cabinets have also been independently FIRA tested and approved to the relevant standards and guidelines.

When you choose a Bott healthcare storage product, you can be sure that it's fit for purpose and be 100% confident in its durability, That's why all Bott healthcare storage products come with our built to last 5 year extended guarantee.
